Trail Descriptions

Barred Owl Trail
(0.6 mile)

This trail has two foot bridge crossings and a bird blind to observe birds in the marsh. It connects to Wood duck trail on the south end and Red-shouldered Trail on the north.

Wood Duck Trail
(1.1 miles)

This trail winds along the tributaries of Clear Fork. Beaver activity and an active dam can be observed along the boardwalk. Seasonally this trail can flood and be slick.

Meadow Trail
(0.2 mile)

This trail branches off and can be traveled in either direction. Birds such as wrens, warblers, Scarlet Tanagers, and Song sparrows can be spotted on this trail.

Red Shoulder Hawk
Trail (0.8 mile)

This trail is our most difficult hiking trail, it has several lengthy inclines. Along the route are education challenges to enhance your outdoor fun.

Chickadee Trail
(0.2 mile)

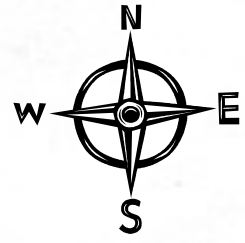

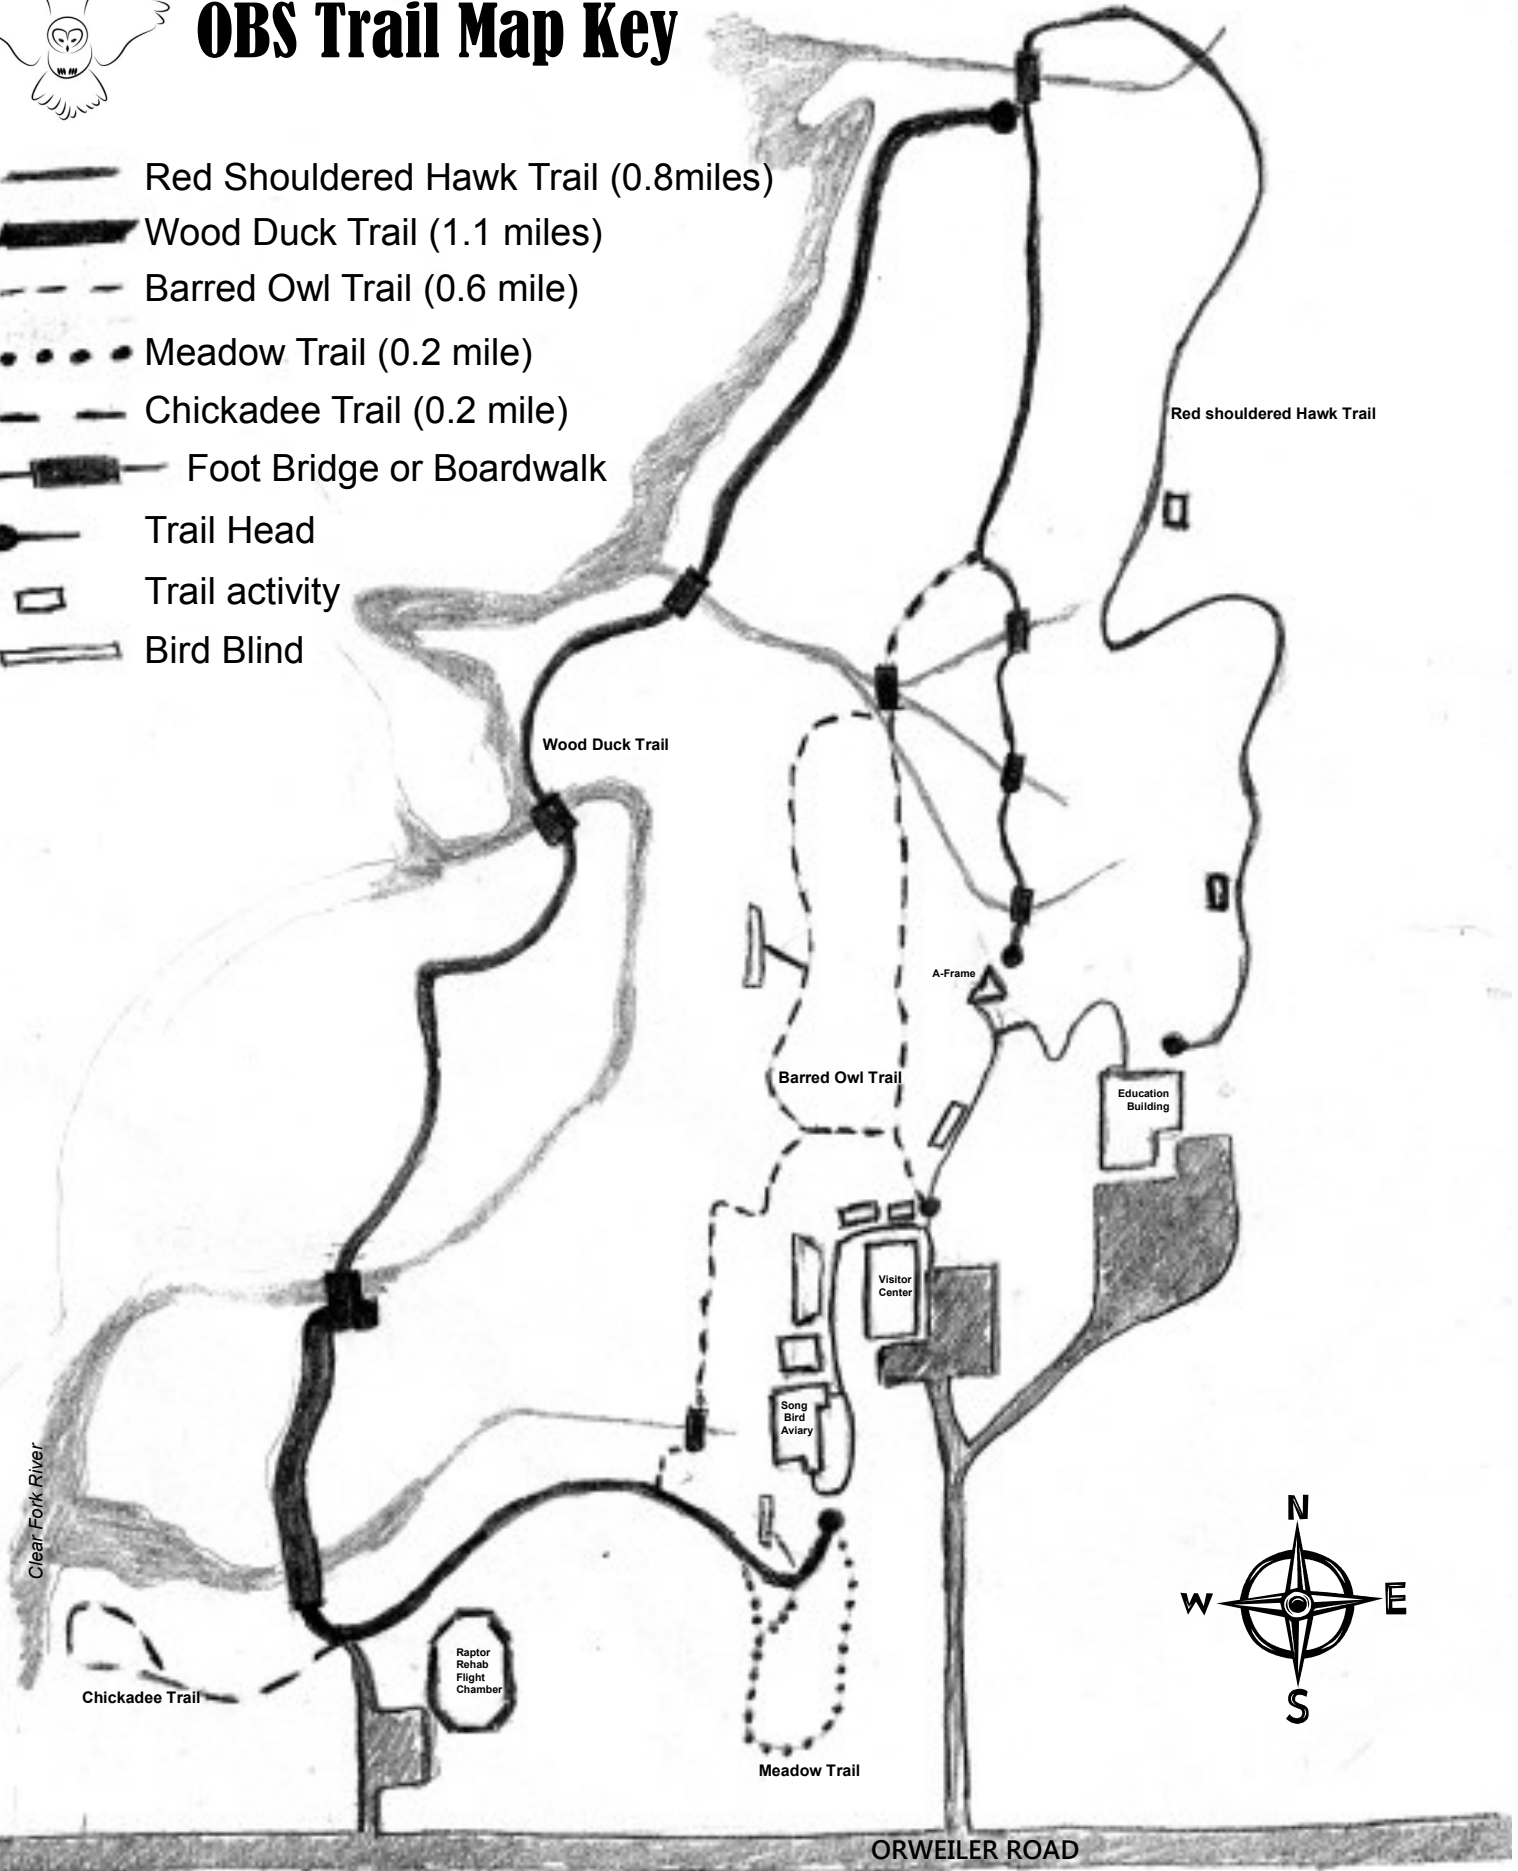

This is a level, easily walked trail. It winds through a pine grove and is adjacent to the wheelchair accessible birding area and Raptor rehab flight chamber
